

Glenn William Coleman

Captain Glenn William Coleman U.S. Navy – Retired passed away peacefully on May 13, 2024, in Cocoa Beach, Florida. Throughout his 86 years on this earth, he remained a warm, personable, and compassionate presence who touched the lives of all he met.

He never met a stranger or lost a lifelong friend.

Glenn had a formative career in the US Navy, graduating with a degree in Marine Engineering, spending 10 years in active service and 12 years of reserve duty, retiring in 1986. After his Navy career, he spent several years in the Aerospace / Defense business, traveling all over the world on multiple business ventures.

On one of those ventures, in Kuwait, he was held captive in Iraq by Saddam Hussein's soldiers for 4 ½ months. The first Gulf war began after the release of the hostages.

Born in Habana Cuba, on October 31, 1937.

He is preceded in death by the love of his life, his wife of 61 years, Hope Harlow Coleman, his Father Henry M Coleman Sr. and his Mother Marie Bostain Coleman, and 3 brothers, Henry Jr., Charles, & Raymond Coleman.

He is survived by several nephews, nieces, and family. He is and will continue to be sorely missed and loved by all.
