GENERAL INFORMATION

The following information is provided as a guide for your visit to the United States Naval Academy, June Week 1973.

DRESS

Visitors should be prepared to cope with Maryland's unpredictable weather. During early June, temperatures vary from cold (in the 50's) to mid-summer hot, and rain showers are frequent.

Basically, three types of clothing are needed: casual outfits to include bathing suit, shorts, slacks, etc., for recreational outings; pantsuits, simple dresses or suits for spectator sports, parades or informal dinners; and formal dress for hops (long formals are usually worn and they are always worn for the Ring Dance and Farewell Ball). It is recognized that many parents come from areas where formal dress is not needed. It is suggested that in lieu of formal attire, parents wear their "dressiest best" for evening occasions.

Guests should bring a lightweight coat or jacket for evenings and a raincoat and an umbrella.

DINING FACILITIES

Officers' & Faculty Club, U. S. Naval Academy. Coat and tie required in the main dining room on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights.

Information regarding local restaurants may be obtained from your midshipman host.

TRANSPORTATION

Transportation to Annapolis from Washington or Baltimore is limited to bus service. Bus schedules may be obtained by writing the Security Officer, U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland. Airport limousines are available from Baltimore Friendship Airport—taxi from National Airport.

HOUSING ACCOMMODATIONS

Overnight accommodations in the City of Annapolis are limited. It is suggested that you have either your midshipman host or the Midshipmen's Social Director assist you in obtaining reservations. The Social Director's office is in room 3108, Bancroft Hall, U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland. Phone 301-2673366/67.
