Larry E. Arkley

Larry E. Arkley - Kley

Larry "Kley" Arkley provided useful work in preparation for formal room inspections Plebe year . . . his garbage can and dust pan were brassoed, blackened and pledged. He provided daily obstacle during Plebe summer for Sab, whose job was to level Kley's cover. After two years of frustration and anticipation, Kley's dreams were realized when, as a second class, he brought. . . the mean machine to school. His tumultuous ecstasy; however, was toppled by J. Lucy 's rejection (not once, but twice!).

Marshall W. Atkins

MARSHALL ATKINS - Chet, Hom-boy
Having lived just about everywhere possible, Chet found a home both at USNA and Springfield, VA. "The Tooth" could often be seen jogging to the " Library " (at St. Johns 2/C year and out to the seawall 1/C year) to hop into his jet and head out to those "highways." Although Chet never had any difficulty getting over the wall, when it came to mechanical genius, we're all still wondering how he gets his car started. Chet is appearance conscious. This is evident by the many hours he spent readying himself (packing his rug) for both his "Boy" and Thurs. noon. Of course we all know Nuke Power needs more good-looking, professional Black Officers. But Diane is Chet's real reason for all his pruning, she manages to be the only one who can keep that conduct case out of trouble. Whether Chet is going Navy Blue or Army Green is still in question, but whatever his choice we wish both he and Diane the best of luck. See you in Wing-16 after our swim in the reflection pool with the rest of McKee's bottom 5%.
