Dear 'mates, The great 40th Reunion is rapidly approaching! If you haven't arranged your accommodations, it is time to make your move. Our headquarters hotel is the Annapolis DoubleTree, but the block of rooms reserved at our special rate has undoubtedly been filled by the time you are reading this. You can still try to get in there at their regular rate, or you can try a nearby hotel. The Hilton Garden Inn, Courtyard by Marriott, Holiday Inn Express, Best Western, Hampton Inn, and Residence Inn are all in the area. If you are interested in renting an Annapolis-area house for the reunion, try Lauren McCarthy at 858-952-9803.

We will gather in Annapolis for the Air Force game on Saturday, 3 October. Class meetings, Memorial Service, and Ice-breaker Dinner will be on Friday the 2nd. Golf and Mike's Crab House are on Thursday. Important note: Tailgater will be in the N* Room inside Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, so you WILL need game tickets. The committee is doing their best to keep costs reasonable—but hey, news flash—Annapolis during Navy football season is expensive. This will be the biggest and best reunion our class has ever hosted. Can't wait to see all of you! Check the USNA '75 Facebook page or the web page for the latest gouge. Look there for reservation information and game ticket gouge around 1 May.

Calling all authors! We are going to set up a Flower Child Book-signing event at the DoubleTree before the Ice-Breaker dinner on Friday, 2 October. Shoot me an email if you'd like to participate.

Erwin

Wunderlich,

Jim Tenuto, Pat

Sloan, Rick

Gribble, and yours truly

are all published authors ...

and I am sure there are others in the class as well. Bring books to Annapolis and share your creations with your classmates!

Bill Squires sent a photo taken on the field in Baltimore after the Army game. Tanner Fleming '15 was a three-year starter at center. He made the class proud through his toughness and his intelligent play. Tanner will be commissioned in the U.S. Marine Corps following graduation.

Dick Arnold got together with some SOCAL10th Company-mates to watch the Super Bowl. They turned away from the Katie Perry halftime special long enough to pose for a picture.

As you may have noticed, the gouge locker is just about empty. As we in the south yell during Mardi Gras parades, "Throw me something Mister!" 75 Sir! Larry
